PLAN OF ACTION

The objective of Anjuman- I- Islam's Institute of Hospitality Management is to promote and uphold governance that aligns with the core values of NAAC's Criterion 7. Below is a detailed action plan outlining initiatives and measures to address the key aspects of this criterion:

1. Gender Equity

- Conduct workshops, seminars, and awareness campaigns on gender sensitivity.
- Implement programs to enhance leadership skills among women faculty, staff, and students.

2. Environmental Sustainability

- Increase the use of renewable energy through energy-efficient infrastructure and responsible usage.
- Prioritize the purchase of certified LED equipment to reduce energy consumption.
- Maintain green spaces and organize annual tree and sapling plantation drives.
- Take measures to minimize energy usage and prevent wastage caused by leaks or negligence.
- Enhance water conservation efforts by installing efficient water-saving systems.
- Conduct annual beach clean-up drives to promote environmental awareness.

3. Code of Conduct

- Ensure strict adherence to the Institutional Code of Conduct.
- Uphold and monitor compliance with students' rules and regulations.

4. Incentivization

- Host an annual valedictory event to recognize and motivate academically outstanding students with awards.

5. Human Values

- Conduct community outreach programs and social welfare initiatives to foster societal engagement and instill social responsibility in students.
- Organize annual Faculty Development Programs (FDPs) on nationally relevant topics.
- Facilitate community cleaning drives to encourage active participation in social improvement.

6. Implementation of Best Practices

- Reduce food wastage by promoting the serving of manageable portion sizes.
- Organize annual workshops on nutritional diets.
- Conduct regular awareness campaigns through various platforms and media.
